

Oita University(Oita)

Make a Big Contribution to Japanese Studies in Oita Region!

◇UNIVERSITY OVERVIEW

① About Oita University

• Oita University's mission is to 'foster people rich in creativity and humanity, contribute to peace and development in the world, and promote human welfare and creating new culture.'

• Oita University (hereafter "the university") has Faculties: Education, Economics, Medicine, Science and Technology; and Welfare and Health Science and it also has five graduate schools: Education, Economics, Medicine, Engineering, and Social Service Administration. As of 2017, the University has 4985 undergraduate students, 660 graduate students; classes are conducted with a small number of students, so international students enjoy a close relationship with the faculty and staff and have many opportunities to develop friendships with Japanese students.

② An International Atmosphere at Oita University

• The University has concluded 73 agreements for student exchange with universities from 21 countries and regions. At present there are 134 international students studying at the University. The Japanese studies program began in 2004 and has accepted students to the program each year since. The University also has short-term exchange programs for students from our partner universities from such places as the United States, Europe, Australia, China, and Korea. About 60 short-term exchange students participate in this program each semester.

③ Numbers of international students and Japanese studies students accepted to the University

2017 : 134 international students, and 2 Japanese Studies Program student s

2016 : 129 international students, and 1 Japanese Studies Program student

2015: 121 international students, and 5 Japanese Studies Program student s

④ About Oita Prefecture

• Did you know that Oita prefecture has the second highest ratio of international students to population in all Japan in 2017? Oita prefecture is quite popular among international students.

• Oita prefecture is in eastern Kyushu. The prefectural capital is located in Oita city, whose population is 470,000. With a low cost of living for a city of this size, and with kind people, Oita city provides international students with a high quality of life. The prefecture is nationally famous for its hot springs, found in such places as Beppu and Yufuin. Oita enjoys a moderate climate with an average yearly temperature of 17 degrees Celsius.

• Oita's history is also fascinating. The city of Oita was once one of the largest international cities in Japan during the reign of Otomo Sorin. The history can further be traced back through the stone Buddha statues carved in Usuki (a designated National Treasure) carved from 11th to 12th centuries, and to Usa shrine constructed in the eighth century, and beyond.

◇ PROGRAM DETAILS

① The Japanese Studies program is designed for international students. These students (Japanese research students) should have the following objectives.

1) A course intended mainly to improve Japanese language proficiency with supplementary study about Japan and Japanese culture

2) To attain a high level of knowledge about Japanese language and culture

3) To contribute to the advancement of research into Japanese language and culture, and the desire to contribute to promoting mutual understanding between Japan and the student's own country

② The most important task for Japanese research students is to produce a research paper over the course of a year of study. The student will select a theme related to Japanese language and/or culture, and will work under the guidance of an advising professor while also learning how to conduct research and investigations. The advising professor, and an individual tutor, will form a team with the student to provide guidance and support throughout the researching and writing process. The student will also learn how to write research papers in Japanese. In addition, while working on their research papers, students will further advance their knowledge of Japanese by choosing and taking Japanese language Japanese studies courses appropriate to their level and objectives. Students with a high level of Japanese proficiency can take university general education and specialized subject courses with Japanese university students. In addition, students who are considering presenting research papers in English can take courses that are conducted in English. Finally, the Japanese studies program uniquely offers many opportunities to broaden your horizons by participating in regional festivals and field trips.

③ We accept up to 5 students to the Program. (Three students recommended by universities and two students recommended by embassies)

④ Qualifications for Admission

⑥ Period of study

- October 1, 2018 - August 31, 2019
- The completion ceremony is planned for August. (The 2017 ceremony was held in August.)

⑦ Course Content

• You must take a minimum of seven courses per week, to be selected from among the required and elective courses explained below. (You will thus have a minimum of 315 face-to-face contact hours to learn Japanese language and culture over the year.) Please note that the "Japanese studies" course described in category one is a requirement. All of these courses meet once a week for 90 minutes.

1) Required Subjects

• Japanese Studies: "Japanese Studies I" (fall semester) and "Japanese Studies II" (spring semester) are both required courses. Under the guidance of a faculty member you will select a theme related to Japanese language or culture, and will carry out investigation and research concerning this chosen topic. You will submit a research paper with the results of your research in "Japanese Studies II" in the spring semester.

• Japanese Language & Japanese Studies (JLJS) Courses: Your Japanese language ability will be assessed in a placement test. Based on the results of this test, you will be placed in Japanese courses at an appropriate level. There are four levels of Japanese courses, including advanced level special courses. In principle Japanese studies students must take at least three JLJS courses each semester.

2) Courses based on experiential learning and fieldwork in the local area

• Students can participate in volunteer activities in Oita Prefecture through "Introduction to Volunteer Learning". "The Waters of Oita I, II" gives students the opportunity to learn through experiential learning about the circumstances of the environment surrounding the Oono river basin and the role that the river and the water it provides plays in regional development. (These courses are general education courses.) In "Social Networks and Introduction of Oita to the World 2," you will visit a rural area in Oita, find out what a rural life is like in Oita, and explore solutions to the problems of environmental protection and rural depopulation. In "Project Planning, Volunteering and Internship 2, 3" you will visit the historical Kunisaki Peninsula and compose and edit a magazine to show the beauty and history of this peninsula to the world.
