

Oita University (Oita)

Make a Big Contribution to Japanese Studies in Oita Region!

■ UNIVERSITY OVERVIEW

① About Oita University

• Oita University's mission is to 'foster people rich in creativity and humanity, contribute to peace and development in the world, and promote human welfare and creating new culture.'

• Oita University (hereafter "the university") has Faculties: Education, Economics, Medicine, Science and Technology; and Welfare and Health Science and it also has five graduate schools: Education, Economics, Medicine, Engineering, and Social Service Administration. As of 2018, the University has 4957 undergraduate students, 639 graduate students; classes are conducted with a small number of students, so international students enjoy a close relationship with the faculty and staff and have many opportunities to develop friendships with Japanese students.

② An International Atmosphere at Oita University

• The University has concluded 75 agreements for student exchange with universities from 23 countries and regions. At present there are 165 international students studying at the University. The Japanese studies program began in 2004 and has accepted students to the program each year since. The University also has short-term exchange programs for students from our partner universities from such places as the United States, Europe, Australia, China, and Korea. About 60 short-term exchange students participate in this program each semester.

③ Numbers of international students and Japanese studies students accepted to the University

2018: 165 international students, and 5 Japanese Studies Program students
2017: 134 international students, and 2 Japanese Studies Program students
2016: 129 international students, and 1 Japanese Studies Program student

④ About Oita Prefecture

• Did you know that Oita prefecture has the second highest ratio of international students to population in all Japan in 2017? Oita prefecture is quite popular among international students.

• Oita prefecture is in eastern Kyushu. The prefectural capital is located in Oita city, whose population is 470,000. With a low cost of living for a city of this size, and with kind people, Oita city provides international students with a high quality of life. The prefecture is nationally famous for its hot springs, found in such places as Beppu and Yufuin. Oita enjoys a moderate climate with an average yearly temperature of 17 degrees Celsius.

• Oita's history is also fascinating. The city of Oita was once one of the largest international cities in Japan during the reign of Otomo Sorin. The history can further be traced back through the stone Buddha statues carved in Usuki (a designated National Treasure) carved from 11th to 12th centuries, and to Usa shrine constructed in the eighth century, and beyond.

■ PROGRAM DETAILS

① Purpose of the Studies

A course intended mainly to improve Japanese language proficiency with supplementary study about Japan and Japanese culture

② The most important task for Japanese research students is to produce a research paper over the course of a year of study. The student will select a theme related to Japanese language and/or culture, and will work under the guidance of an advising professor while also learning how to conduct research and investigations. The advising professor, and an individual tutor, will form a team with the student to provide guidance and support throughout the researching and writing process.

The student will also learn how to write research papers in Japanese. In addition, while working on their research papers, students will further advance their knowledge of Japanese by choosing and taking Japanese language Japanese studies courses appropriate to their level and objectives. Students with a high level of Japanese proficiency can take university general education and specialized subject courses with Japanese university students. In addition, students who are considering presenting research papers in English can take courses that are conducted in English. Finally, the Japanese studies program uniquely offers many opportunities to broaden your horizons by participating in regional festivals and field trips.

③ We accept up to 5 students to the Program. (Three students recommended by universities and two students recommended by embassies)
